1. [REDACTED] Called at the office of Senator Allen J. Ellender and left word with his personal secretary, Marihelen Horneman, renewing our invitation for the Senator to visit Headquarters for a briefing at any time he might find convenient including evenings or Saturdays. She said she had left a note for the Senator to this effect, but would make sure to again draw it to his attention.

2. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and I met with Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, and reminded him of our desire to brief Senator Allen Ellender at the first opportunity. I explained that I had just called at Ellender's office, for the second time in the past week, to leave word for the Senator that we would like to get him out to Headquarters for a meeting with the Director and a briefing at his earliest convenience. See Memo for Record for details.

1. [REDACTED] In response to my query Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, said he hoped that Proctor Jones, who formerly served as a staff assistant in Senator Russell's personal office, would remain on the Appropriations Committee payroll as a junior clerk, but it is not definite at this time.

Charles Campbell, Senator Russell's Administrative Assistant, has moved to the staff of Senator Russell's replacement, Senator David Henry Gambrell.

2. [REDACTED] In response to his query Friday about the 2 February Jack Anderson column alleging SR-71s flown by American pilots were flying over Communist China, I advised Russ Blandford, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, that Anderson had taken several unrelated facts and put them together to produce an erroneous assertion. See Memorandum for the Record.

4. [REDACTED] George Murphy, of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, said he had talked with Senator Pastore this morning and 10:00 a.m. on 24 February looks like a good date for the Director's annual briefing. The Director and [REDACTED] have been notified. [REDACTED] 25X6 25X1A

the acquisition of these machines they will obtain computer technology which they have not been able to develop on their own. In connection with this Murphy asked if there were any new studies on the computer subject which could be made available to the Joint Committee. He specifically mentioned a study by the National Academy of Science on computer exports originally prepared in 1969 and updated in 1970.
